Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict on Accident Ending Life of Mrs. Slocum.

(By Associated Press.) (By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24.—
That Major J. Franklin Ben, chief of staff of the army and his chauffeur, Sergeant Ward, of the signal corps, failed to observe proper precautions before turning their automobile in front of a troiley car, was the verdict of a coroner's jury which today held an inquest into the accident of yesterday, in which Mrs. Herbert J. Slocum, wife of Major Slocum, of the Seventh cavalry, was almost instantly killed and General Bell himself was severely injured.

ame to her death from cerebral hem-rrhage and fracture of the spine. General Bell had not sufficiently re-vered from his injuries to attend. The body of Mrs. Slocum was taken arly in the day to Ossining. N. Y., here the funeral will be held to-orrow.

court that such was not the case. The plaintiff was positive that his neighbor was guilty, because he had seen ine ducks in the defendant's yard.

"How do you know they were your ducks" asked the lawyer.

"Oh, I should know my own ducks anywhere!" replied the farmer; and he gave a description of their various peculiarities whereby he could readily distinguish them from others.

"Why," said the lawyer, "those ducks can't be of such rare breed. I have some just like them in my own yard."
